BLOOM MAGAZINE

book club

If you love to read, like to meet authors, and delight in talking about books while enjoying a glass of wine, a cocktail, or a cup of tea or coffee, then we want you.

Here's how it works:

Every two months in each edition of Bloom, a noted author or literary personage will recommend a book.

Two months later, Bloom will host a Book Club Party at a local venue where the author or recommender will give a short talk and lead a discussion about the book.
