

CAPTURED!

Police and emergency medical workers check out a suspect who was taken into custody at East 6th Street and North Indiana Avenue on September 14. Police from several agencies worked from late morning until late afternoon to catch the man after he reportedly entered the Bloomington storm sewer system near 1st Street and South Walnut that morning. Police believed the man was armed. *